

Wyoming Voter Registration

Who can register to vote?

You may register to vote if you meet the following criteria:

- Citizen of the United States
- Resident of the State of Wyoming
- 18 years of age on election day
- Not a felon
- Not adjudicated mentally incompetent

How to Register to Vote

There are three ways to register to vote in Wyoming. An applicant may register to vote in person at the County Clerk's office or by mail, not less than thirty (30) days before an election. You may also register to vote at the polls on Election Day.

1. Register in person

- Voters may register to vote in the office of the county clerk or town clerk within their county of residence. For a list of county clerks click here.
- Voters may also print out a form on line by clicking here and hand delivering the form to the county clerk in their county of residence. The form must be signed in front of the county clerk.

2. Register by mail

- Voters who are not currently in Wyoming or who cannot go to the county clerk's office may register to vote by mail not less than thirty (30) days before an election. Click here to obtain a voter registration form.

Follow these instructions:

- Fill out the voter registration form in front of a notary or registry agent.
- Show identification to the notary or registry agent.
 - Preferred option. Wyoming Driver License.
 - Second option. One form of the following: Different state's driver license; ID card issued by a local, state or federal agency; US passport; school ID; or military ID.
 - Third option. Two of the following in any combination: Certification of US Citizenship; Certificate of Naturalization; Draft Record; voter registration card from another state or county; original or certified copy of a birth certificate bearing an official seal; certification of birth abroad issued by the Department of State; or any other form of identification issued by an official agency.
- Sign the voter registration oath.
- Have the notary or registered agent sign the form.
- Provide copies of the ID provided to the notary.
- Send the voter registration form and copies of the ID to the county clerk. A list of county clerks can be found here.

3. Register at the polls on Election Day

- Wyoming allows qualified voters to register at the polls on Election Day. Bring an acceptable form of ID to the polls (for example: driver license, passport).

Do you need to re-register

You do not need to re-register to vote in 2006 if you voted in the 2004 general election. You need to re-register if:

- You moved to a different county;
- You did not vote in the 2004 general election.

If you moved within the county to another precinct or changed your name, you must notify the county clerk.

Questions

If you have any questions about registering to vote you should check the Secretary of State's election web site.

Voter Responsibility

The voter is solely responsible for complying with any and all election laws and voting requirements.